Colored construction gang workers who were brought into this section from southern states during the past summer, are greatly drifting back to their home points below the Mason and Dixon line. Some of them say they find the work hard and the discomforts that approaching winter will bring.

WEDDING. Marrotte-Bousquet. At St. James church at 9 o'clock on Monday morning Miss Lillian Marrotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bousquet of Dyer street, and Honore Marrotte, formerly of Worcester, were united in marriage by Rev. J. O. Fenn, M. S., who was also celebrant of the nuptial high mass.

The marriage was witnessed by many friends, several hundred persons occupying pews.

The bride party included Miss Blanche Bousquet, sister of the bride, a maid of honor; Miss Lillian Marrotte, sister of the groom, and Miss Lillian Bousquet, sister of the bride.

The bride's gown was of white charmeuse, silk net and silk ribbon designed train. The bride wore a veil and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink chrysanthemums. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

The bridegroom and flower girls were preceded in white by the bridesmaids. The music of the mass was sung by the regular choir, assisted by Miss Amenda Belair, Tatfield, who sang Millard's Ave Maria, as an offertory.

Following the church service there was a reception for the relatives and friends at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Marrotte left during the afternoon for a wedding reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marrotte in Worcester, Boston and Providence. On their return they will make their home in Danielson, where Mr. Marrotte has for a number of years been engaged as a clerk, now with George F. Davignon. The bride has been one of the clerks at the store of James E. Keach.

Chamber of Commerce Members Going to Willimantic Friday — Plans For Columbus Day Parade — Scout Crew Quarantined — Not a Pupils Appears at Pomfret School Monday — Six Violators of Traffic Rules.

From the offices of the local Chamber of Commerce, notices were sent out Monday of a meeting of the Eastern Connecticut Development committee to be held at Willimantic Friday. This is the meeting at which shippers in towns and cities in this section of the state are to have their opportunity to file complaints relative to the service of the Adams Express company. The express company will have a representative at the meeting as will the New Haven road.

In the notices that were mailed Monday afternoon those addressed are invited, if they have any complaint to make, to come to the meeting prepared to give date and detail so that definite information may be had by the company's representative.

Putnam members who attend the meeting are to leave here on the 10.30 train, returning at 4.15. Arrangements have been made for lunch in Willimantic.

NEARLY $300 COLLECTED. Fund for Columbus Day Celebration Growing Steadily.

Nearly $300 has been subscribed for the fund for Putnam's Columbus day celebration, which is being promoted by Italian residents of the city. Charles Bove, president of the general committee, said Monday afternoon that he is thoroughly satisfied with the spirit that is being shown by citizens and civic bodies toward the enterprise and sees in the generosity that marks the subscriptions and the good will shown generally the promise of real success. Bove promises that observance in honor of the great occasion shall be something that will make the people of Putnam proud.

The big parade is to start at 1.30 p. m. Rev. C. J. Harriman has been selected as marshal and Isaac Champeau is the first of the list of deputy marshals announced. The route of the parade has not been announced, but it will cover the different sections of the city and will be an imposing spectacle. Every civic organization in the city has been invited to participate. Thirty-six invitations have been sent out following the next meetings of the bodies. Some invitations already have been accepted.

A section of the parade will be made up of floats and decorated automobiles and for the best decorated automobiles there will be prizes aggregating $25 in gold.

The patriotic addresses are to be delivered on the high school grounds. The arrangements for the afternoon also provide for a baseball game, to follow the speaking and exercises that will take place at high school field.

Will Attend Suffrage Meeting. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. W. J. Bartlett and Miss Rosemond Danielson will be in Hartford to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the Connecticut Woman Suffrage association. This will be the first meeting held in the permanent headquarters since early summer because of the fact that the executive committee members have been constantly busy with what might be called field work, and as Mr. Bartlett said Monday afternoon, we have covered about every square foot of the state in our summer campaign, which has been incessant.

Mrs. Bartlett and Miss Danielson will report on progress in the town section of the state. Other things to be considered at the meeting are plans for the fall and winter campaign work to be done during the legislative session. There will also be a report on the progress of the suffrage work in the republican and democratic conventions in New Haven this month.

SCOUT CREW QUARANTINED. Because of Joseph Sheehan's Illness His Associates Are Held—No Pupils Appear at Pomfret School.

Joseph Sheehan, the moth scout, ill in Abington with infantile paralysis, was reported Monday as being in an improved condition. His temperature, which has been running high, is nearly normal and there were other signs of improvement.

Six other members of the moth scout crew with whom Mr. Sheehan has been working are quarantined in the house with him and his mother, Mrs. Mary Sheehan, at the Pomfret school. The quarantine is until such time as the health officers direct their release.

The Abington school has been closed for a period of two weeks and another school, in the town of Pomfret, several miles distant, had to be closed Monday because the pupils feared for study, due to the scare that the town's first infantile paralysis case had reached.

James E. Sullivan's Death Unexpected. The body of James E. Sullivan, 55, who died suddenly in the Worcester hospital Saturday evening was brought to his home in this city. The announcement of his death came as a great surprise to the residents of the city, for he has been in excellent good health and spirits even as late as last Friday, when he was engaged with his duties as a traveling salesman.

Mr. Sullivan was a native of Ireland, the son of Mrs. Patrick Sullivan of Danielson, in which place his youthful years were spent. For years he was engaged in the grocery business in this city, in the store on Elm street now occupied by the C. F. Waterman company.

Formerly he was much interested in politics and at one time was a member of the democratic central committee for the past two years, being succeeded only last week by Asa Ross of this city.

Mr. Sullivan leaves his wife and two daughters, Alice of this city and Mrs. Edmund Flynn, Cambridge, Mass.; his mother, four brothers and two sisters, all residents of Danielson.

Children of School Age Total 1680. Lewis E. Battey has completed the enumeration of the city for the year that are between the ages of 4 and 14, and the total is 1680, an increase of 100 over the year 1915.

On the usual basis of computing the number in population from the enumeration the town has gained 245 in the number of its residents this year.

Six Violate Traffic Rules. Six automobile operators have been ordered to appear in the city court this morning to answer to charges of having violated the traffic rules. Most of those ordered to appear will be charged with neglecting to give attention to the silent policemen and cutting to the left instead of the right when passing a car.

Several of the cars have been taken by men who are to be in court this morning for not getting a surprise when they received their notices to appear.

WEDDING. Lucier-Menard. At St. Mary's church at 8 o'clock Monday morning Miss Louise Albina
